ABOUT US: Servant Leadership in the USF Leadership House is about recognizing one's leadership potential, developing leadership ability, acquiring leadership skills by serving others, and demonstrating a commitment to leadership on campus.

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY.

1. Tell us a little about yourself. (Background, Values, Goals, Interests, Outside Commitments)
2. Why do you want to join the Leadership House?
3. What are your strongest assets and biggest challenges?
4. In your own words, define personal accountability and tell us how you plan to apply this level of personal responsibility to your involvement and commitment to the Leadership House?

REQUIREMENTS OF LEADERSHIP HOUSE MEMBERS

- Attend the Leadership House Weekend Orientation at the start of each semester.
- Read the book Teacher As Servant by Robert Greenleaf before your first orientation.
- Attend all weekly House meetings and regularly attend and participate in House projects. (For more information on our activities visit: http://www.ctr.usf.edu/lead/aboutus.php)
- Returning House members are required to enroll in a leadership studies course each year.

I realize that my participation in the Leadership House program is contingent upon my commitment to the above requirements unless there is a direct conflict with my class schedule. I understand that my continuation in the Leadership House program is contingent upon my fulfillment of this agreement.
